

Procedure for organising Preschool Excursions/Incursions

Preschool excursions and incursions are a valuable part of the preschool program that are used to expose children to experiences that they may not otherwise have the opportunity to experience or to build on a current area of interest and exploration.

The organisation of excursions and incursions must follow strict processes in order to meet Regulations 100, 101, and 102 of the National Quality Standard.

Reviewed February 2018

